New wiiw forecast for Central, East and Southeast Europe, 2019-2021

Braced for Fallout from Global Slowdown

Vasily Astrov

Main messages

- Still a very good year for most CESEE countries ...
  - exceptions: Turkey and Russia
- ... but external demand starting to bite
  - exports losing momentum...
  - ... which spills over into investment weakening (Visegrád countries)
- Public sector investments perform well (EU, China's Belt and Road)
- Expansionary economic policy...
- ... but little signs of overheating
- Labour shortages ease somewhat
- Outlook: growth acceleration on average, but with big country differences

Outlook for 2020-2021

- EU-CEE: 'soft landing'
  - protectionist risks, especially for car industry
  - but domestic demand will stay vibrant
  - risks of lower EU transfers only in medium term
- Russia and Turkey: growth rebound
  - Russia: fiscal stimulus
  - Turkey: recovery will continue, but high geopolitical risks
- Elsewhere: broadly stable growth prospects
  - Western Balkans: EU accession prospects have suffered
  - CIS and Ukraine: risks of excessive credit growth, external vulnerability
