

Session 4: Transport, Energy & Environmental Cooperation

Daniel Kroos, M.A., LL.M.
Senior Programme Officer Energy Security

International Workshop – „Connectivity in Central Asia“
Vienna, 16 December 2016

Agenda

1. Energy Security Challenges in Central Asia

2. OSCE Mandate in Energy Security

3. Way Forward

Energy Security priorities in Central Asia should focus on regional connectivity, the diversification of supplies, energy governance and infrastructure resilience

Overview Priorities

Agenda

1. Energy Security Challenges in Central Asia

2. OSCE Mandate in Energy Security

3. Way Forward

The OSCE engagement in energy security started with the 2003 Maastricht Strategy document. The mandate was expanded through several Ministerial Council Decisions

The Mandate

The OSCE closely cooperates with Vienna-based leading international energy agencies in the Vienna Energy Club, as well as organizations around the globe

OSCE Partners

Agenda

1. Energy Security Challenges in Central Asia

2. OSCE Mandate in Energy Security

3. Way Forward

Contact Information:

Daniel Kroos
Senior Programme Officer
Energy Security
OSCE
Wallnerstr. 6
1010 Vienna, Austria

daniel.kroos@osce.org